

The Embroiderers' Guild of America, Inc.
Tennessee Valley Region Bylaws: 2011

Article I Name Use of EGA'S Trademarks

The name of this organization shall be the Tennessee Valley Region of The Embroiderers' Guild of America, Inc., (EGA). While this region is recognized as a region of EGA, the region and its member chapters may use EGA's registered trademarks: the name "The Embroiderers' Guild of America, Inc.", the stylized needle and thimble logo and design, and the letters "EGA" under standards approved by EGA. All use of such registered trademarks shall be discontinued upon the suspension, withdrawal of recognition, resignation, or dissolution of this region.

Article II Object

The purpose of this region shall be to foster the highest standards of excellence in the practice of the art of embroidery through an active program of education and study, to preserve the heritage of the art of embroidery, to serve as a link between chapters and the national organization, and to aid in effective cooperation and communication among its member chapters.

Article III Membership

Section 1. The Tennessee Valley Region shall be composed of chapters with the geographic boundaries as defined by EGA board of directors. Membership in a chapter confers membership in the respective region. Any person, regardless of race, color, creed, sex, or national origin, may become a member of the individual chapters upon application and payment of dues.

Section 2. Annual region dues shall be payable to the region treasurer by the chapter treasurers. Region dues are to be paid concurrent with the members' national dues.

Section 3. Those chapters whose dues are not paid within the quarter of notification shall automatically be dropped from membership.

Section 4. Region dues for transfer and plural members shall be paid by the chapters to the region treasurer, provided the member's national dues are current. Plural members of the region whose primary dues are collected outside the region shall pay region dues to the member chapter with which they are plural.

Article IV Officers

Section 1: The officers of this region shall be a region director, an assistant region director, a secretary, and a treasurer. Officers shall be members of a chapter within the region.

Section 2: Officers shall serve for a term of three years or until their successors are elected, and the term of office shall begin January 1 following the annual meeting at which they were elected.

Section 3: No member shall be eligible to serve consecutive elected terms in the same office, and no member shall hold more than one elected office at a time.

Section 4: If a vacancy occurs in the office of region director, the assistant region director shall automatically become region director; all other vacancies in office shall be filled by election by the board of directors from a slate submitted by the nominating committee.

Section 5: Nominations and Elections:

a. A nominating committee of three (3) members shall be elected in 2011 and every three years thereafter. It shall be the duty of this committee to nominate three (3) members to serve as the nominating committee. They shall submit their slate of nominations at the board meeting prior to the annual meeting, having obtained consent for nomination from each.

b. In 2010 and every three years thereafter, it shall be the duty of the nominating committee to nominate at least one candidate for each of the offices to be filled and to report at the board meeting prior to the annual meeting, having obtained consent for nomination from each.

c. The election of officers shall be at the annual meeting. Additional nominations from the floor may be made providing consent to serve has been obtained from the nominees prior to the meeting. If there is more than one candidate for an office, the vote shall be taken by ballot.

Article V Meetings and Notice

Section 1: The region shall hold two (2) meetings per year unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors.

Section 2. The annual meeting shall be held during the second meeting of the year for the purpose of electing officers, receiving annual reports from the officers and standing committees, adopting a budget and transacting any other business that may arise.

Section 3. Special meetings may be called by the region director, by the board of directors, or by three (3) chapter region representative members, plus two executive committee members. A fourteen day notice stating the business of the special meeting is required, and no business other than that stated in the notice may be transacted.

Section 4. The quorum for all region meetings shall be one-third of all voting members of the board.

Section 5. Voting without a meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the board or any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting provided that all members of the board or committee are notified in writing of the the resolution and that two thirds of the members of the board or committee consent in writing to the adoption of the resolution authorizing the action. If action without a meeting is necessary by the board, the action must be ratified at the next regular board meeting in order to become an official act.

Article VI Board of Directors

Section 1. The board of directors shall be composed of the elected officers (Executive Committee), the member chapter region representatives, and region-sponsored EGA national special events chairmen.

Section 2. The region director shall appoint a parliamentarian, with the approval of the executive committee. The appointment shall be announced at the first region meeting after the election or as appropriate. The parliamentarian shall serve without a vote.

Section 3. Unless otherwise stated, the term for the appointed members of the board of directors shall be concurrent with the term of the region director who appointed them. The region's special events chairmen are the exception.

Section 4. The board of directors shall have general supervision of the affairs of the region between its business meetings: fix the day, hour, and place of meetings, make other recommendations to the regions members; and perform other duties specified in these bylaws. The board shall be subject to the direction of the member chapters and its acts shall in no way conflict with action taken by the general membership.

Article VII Executive Committee

Section 1. The executive committee shall be composed of the elected officers of the region.

Section 2. The executive committee shall have general authority over the region between meeting of the board of directors and it shall also perform other duties specified in these bylaws. Any action taken by the committee shall be reported at the next board meeting.

Section 3. Meetings of the executive committee shall be held between meetings of the board of directors if necessary.

Section 4. The quorum for the executive committee shall be a majority of its members.

Article VIII Committees

Section 1. The standing committees of this region shall be Outreach, Education, Finance, Historian, Newsletter, and Share-A-Stitch.

Section 2. The region director shall appoint all standing committee chairmen. Committee appointments shall be approved by the executive committee. The region director shall announce said appointments at the first region meeting following the election or as appropriate.

Section 3. Special committees or additional committees shall be appointed by the region director as the board of directors deems necessary.

Section 4. The region director shall be an ex officio member of all committees except the nominating committee.

Article IX Fiscal Policies

Section 1. The fiscal year shall be from January 1 through December 1.

Section 2. The books and accounts of the region shall be kept in accordance with sound accounting practices. Region financial records shall be audited each year, either professionally or by an Audit Committee appointed by the region director. The treasurer shall furnish EGA with a report of the finances of the region by February 15 of each year.

Section 3. No one may profit from membership in the region by sales, or solicitation of sales at EGA meetings or workshops; however, the region may contract with members in their professional capacities. The use of EGA membership lists for purposes other than EGA is strictly prohibited.

Section 4. Annual Budget.

a. The region shall prepare and present a budget to the membership for approval no later than the meeting prior to the effective date of the budget.

b. The board of directors and/or the executive committee shall not spend any non-budgeted funds in excess of $1000 during the fiscal year. The region may approve an expenditure in excess of this amount provided:

1) the membership is notified in writing at least thirty days prior to the meeting at which the vote is taken,

2) the written notice shall include the amount and purpose of the expenditure, and

3) the approval is by a two thirds vote of the members present at the region meeting.

Section 5. Donations: Donations of monies by the region may be made to any organization which is in compliance with Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code and which the region, by a two-thirds vote, has designated as the recipient. Notice of such a proposed donation shall be submitted to the members in writing at least thirty days prior to the meeting at which such vote is taken.

Section 6. Dissolution: In the event of dissolution of the region, all its assets and funds remaining after payment or provision for payment of all debts and liabilities of the region shall be distributed to one or more organizations which have been in existence for a period of two years, which are in compliance with Section 501 (c) (3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code, and which the region has designated as a recipient by a two-thirds vote. Notification to the membership shall be provided in writing at least thirty days prior to the meeting at which such a vote is to be taken.

Section 7. Indemnification of Directors or Officers: The indemnification of Directors and Officers in Article X, national EGA Bylaws, specifies that EGA may indemnify the region director, director-elect, assistant director, secretary, treasurer, and any other elected officers of this region as described in Section 2.D., Article IV of the National EGA Bylaws.

Article X Parliamentary Authority

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the region in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the Bylaws of the Embroiderer's Guild of America, Inc., any special rules of order the region may adopt or any statutes applicable to this organization.
